

Scientific symposium:
Pressure ulcer prevention:
prevalence and incidence in context

Chairman: Tom Defloor
Thursday 3 September, 15:00-16:30
AMC Amsterdam, Auditorium

- 15:00 Welcome by Chairman
- 15:05 Tom Defloor (Ghent University, Belgium)
International Pressure Ulcer Guidelines on Performing Prevalence and Incidence Studies
- 15:30 Paul Trueman (YHEC-York, UK)
The impact of pressure ulcer prevention on hospital budgets
- 15:55 Isabel Bales (Methodist Medical Center, Illinois USA)
Reaching for the moon: achieving zero pressure ulcer prevalence?
- 16:20 Q&A session
- 16:25 Summary by Chairman
- 16:30 End of symposium

Interested in cost saving?

... calculate the impact of pressure ulcer prevention on your hospital budget!

... and experience the potential CHANGE in treatment costs in your hospital!

Visit the KCI booth for an interactive demonstration of an independently developed health economics model*.

* as presented by Paul Trueman (YHEC-York, UK) during the KCI symposium